BOMBAY RACES, 1913.

There are no better Field Glasses in the world than those known as the GOERZ TRIEDER and the EMILE BUSCH BINOCULARS.

They are made for the Marine Service, for the Field and for the Theatre. Wonderful qualities, and the most extensive field of view, make them transcendentally perfect for use on the Race Course. They are as different to the ordinary field glass as a diamond is to a bit of glass.

There are many imitations of these excellent Prism binoculars offered at about a third of the price and under strikingly fancy names intended to conceal their origin, but which only prove their illegitimacy and orphanism. Such imitation may be accepted, therefore, as mere contrivances manufactured solely for the purpose of use as successful "Catch-pennies."

A deposit of Rs. 2,000 in case of item No. 1, or item No. 1 A, of Rs. 1,500 in case of item No. 2, and Rs. 500 in case of item No. 3, must be paid into the Chief Accountant's Office at the time of lodging the Tenders, which will be forfeited in case of withdrawal of Tender, or of refusal to sign the contract.

Successful Tenderers must pay full stamp duty on their respective contracts and the charges, if any, for executing them. The successful Tenderer or Tenderers will be required to deposit in cash or securities only 2 per cent. of the total contract amount, and as a further security for the fulfilment of the contract deductions will be made at the rate of 5 per cent. up to a limit of 10 per cent. on the contract amount from the fortnightly bills to be paid as hereinafter mentioned, and these deductions will be added to the original deposits and will be subject to the same conditions and restrictions as regards the original deposits. The securities, if paid in cash, will bear no interest, but will, at the request of the successful Tenderer, be invested in Government, or other securities from time to time on conditions to be ascertained from the Chief Accountant.

Payments for supplies received, will be made fortnightly on receipt of properly certified bills. The first fortnightly payment will be made after the second fortnightly supply is received in March, 1913, and thereafter every fortnight and the payment due for the supplies made during the first fortnight on the contract will be held as security for the due fulfilment of the contract and will be subject to the same conditions as the deposit of 2 per cent. of the contract amount, and the 5 per cent. deductions made from the fortnightly bills.

The supplies to be made of the different articles specified above must be all of the first quality according to the sealed samples open to inspection in the office of the Executive Health Officer, except in regard to Rangoon Ooreed of which a sample of the quality to be supplied should be forwarded with the Tenders.

Tenderers must distinctly understand that the terms as regards deposits, &c., stipulated in Tender forms will not be allowed to be altered.

The Municipal Commissioner does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any Tender or Tenders, and reserves the right before accepting Tenders of revising such of the rates in the successful Tenders as may appear to be exceptionally high.

Municipal Commissioner for the City of Bombay.

MARKET REPORT:—

The American markets closed yesterday with a moderate decline of 11 to 12 points in futures, but the week end statistics are bullish. We are likely to see fluctuating markets in the near future with a tendency towards higher rates after each decline. It is anticipated that the Yorkshire difficulties will be arranged amicably. The local market opened Re. 1 to Rs. 2 lower than yesterday's closing rates the tone being quite. There was little enquiry during the early part of the day. At Colaba there was some business doing in the bazaar, but otherwise the market remained quiet and rates close as under.

For ready cotton there was a falling off in the demand as compared with yesterday.

FALL OVERBOARD.—An accident occurred on board the steamer "Sant Tukaram," from Goa to Bombay on Friday, when the steamer was approaching the Modi-bunder wharf. A Goanese passenger named John Fernandez lost his footing and fell overboard, but was rescued.

GRAIN MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION, MANDVI.—On account of the demise at Kotnara (Cutch) of Vissonji Laddha Palany, chief partner in the firm of Messrs. P., chairman, it has been unanimously resolved to close the grain and seeds bazar to-day out of respect to the deceased.

THEFT OF NOTES.—A theft of currency-notes of the value of Rs. 2,500 has been reported to the police by a cashier in the employ of Messrs. Currim Parmahomed and Company of Nashanpar. It appears that on Friday notes of the value of Rs. 12,500 were entrusted to him to be paid to the Eastern Bank and to the Bank of India. The amount for the Eastern Bank, Rs. 10,000, was paid in first, and the cashier placed the balance, Rs. 2,500, in his coat pocket. On feeling in the pocket a little later, he found that the notes were not there. The matter was reported to the police. "BYSTANDER," 6th November, 1912, writes of NAPIER Cars :
"It is a wise policy that leaves the cheap vehicles to fight out their own salvation and develop a distinct type of car, in which price is subservient to the requirements of high grade."

With the British instinct for good work Messrs. D. Napier & Sons have, from the first, devoted all their attention to manufacturing real good cars. They have made quality paramount to all considerations.

To the motorist or would-be motorist of restricted means, we would remind them that it is the upkeep expenditure on a car which has to be considered and which really hurts. So do not forget that cars turned out purely "at a price" are not the most economical. NAPIER means proved economy in upkeep and a car obtainable at a moderate price, the special feature being

LOW PETROL CONSUMPTION ;
LOW LUBRICATION COST ;
LOW COST OF TYRES ;
NO COST FOR REPAIRS.

All intelligent motorists appreciate these points.

If you regard motoring as the nearest approach to Heaven on earth, the luxurious NAPIER will even more than demonstrate such an idea.

MEDICINE AND INSURANCE.

The opposition of the medical profession has been so far overcome that the Insurance Act will now probably be worked. Under the Act, the medical benefits for which the beneficiaries have subscribed since July, fall due on the fifteenth of this month ; but until a few days ago it was still doubtful if a sufficient number of qualified medical men would accept the offered appointments. Although Mr. Lloyd-George has all along under-estimated the strength of the profession's objections, he has latterly endeavoured to meet them in characteristic fashion by increasing the pecuniary remuneration promised to the doctors for their services. The result has been that a number of practitioners have intimated their willingness to do the work, and that the medical benefits will now in many districts, and perhaps in all, be dispensed. Loyalty to their own political party, and a conscientious belief in the value of the measure, doubtless account in some cases for the defection of this minority of the profession; but it is to be feared that in most cases the reason for their action is more personal. To a practitioner, the offer of a lump sum, large enough to meet rent and taxes, would, at any time, be welcome; and in these days when the difficulty of making ends meet presses more sorely each year upon the middle classes, it is not surprising that, out of twenty-five thousand medical men in the United Kingdom, some should have accepted Mr. George's terms. A good deal of sympathy is due to men so situated, and none of us will judge them harshly in agreeing to work under Mr. Lloyd-George, even although we wish that they had been firm and had stood by their profession. But we admire all the more the attitude taken up by the great majority of the doctors. Even now Mr. George does not seem to understand the motive of their resistance to his proposals, for he still argues the question of remuneration as if that were the chief issue between him and them. But when we see that the leading men in the profession are unanimously opposed to the medical provisions of the measure, and when they assure us that they are fighting not for more money, though that point necessarily emerges, but for the whole future of medicine in England, we are bound to believe them and to take their side. The passage of the Act has limited the range of the doctors' protests, and for the present they have to content themselves with making terms; but it must be remembered that the medical profession is opposed to the whole scheme of medical benefits under the Act, which they regard as little less than a calamity.

Allowing for exceptions, all the best doctors in the country are opposed to the Insurance Act. The surgeons, the specialists, the high-class practitioners,—all, in short, who strive to keep abreast of their profession and to bring into practice the fullest knowledge and the latest discoveries of medical science, are united against it. The Act makes no difference to them pecuniarily. It has made a difference and brought loss to many doctors who had invested money, sometimes all they had, in practices in working class districts ; but to the intellectual leaders of the profession, the Act brings neither loss nor gain. It is with their work that it threatens to interfere. Medicine is a progressive science. The great strides, which it has taken in the last two hundred years, mark the whole period off from the preceding centuries of the Christian era during which medical knowledge stood still ; and the advance from which all have benefited has been accomplished through research and co-operation far more than through individual skill. Men's brains are no more powerful now than they were three hundred years ago : it is the altered conditions of medical study which have wrought so great a change in the curing of illness and the prevention of disease. The wisest physician admits that medicine is still experimental. There are no unalterable text-books and no inviolable rules for the student to master and to acquire. The specialists gather round the hospitals, where they continually refresh their own knowledge of the human frame, and at the same time impart that clinical instruction which is the best part of the young doctor's training. Ably conducted journals spread the reports of lectures and operations and keep the practitioners in town and country informed of the work done in hospitals all over Europe. The hospitals are the real schools of medicine in Europe, and without the opportunities that they afford, knowledge would not only not increase, but would rapidly decline.

Now to their dismay the doctors foresee the break up of this excellent system. The patients in the large hospitals are drawn from the working classes. There are private hospitals and small country hospitals which fill a useful place in the community at home ; but the schools of instruction and the centres of medical learning both, in the United Kingdom and on the continent, are the large hospitals of the great cities. Recognizing the benefits which the hospitals confer, the public have hitherto supported them with generous help, and both the employers of labour and the workmen themselves have willingly contributed to their support. But now that employers and workmen are alike taxed for medical benefits, and now that the State is in return to provide free medical attendance for all persons insured under the Act, subscriptions to the hospitals have already fallen off, and the indications are that the decrease will continue. The managers of the hospitals are afraid of this, and in some instances the outdoor department, where the poor received advice and medicine free, has already been closed. Unless the State or the municipalities will take over the hospitals, the very existence of these beneficent institutions, whose usefulness has already been crippled, will be actually endangered. It is for this reason chiefly that the doctors dislike and fear the Act. They dislike it for other reasons,—because, for one thing, it perpetuates a tyrannical arrangement of payment and control,—but they fear it, because of its effect upon the general practice of medicine. With as much sympathy for and as great knowledge of the working classes as Mr. Lloyd-George possesses, they see that his scheme will, in the end, harm the beneficiaries themselves. It is a retrograde scheme, and the proof of that is that it has been forced upon the country against the protests of the very men best able to advise on the subject. If the Act is worked without amendment, in a very few years opportunities for clinical instruction will have become fewer, and medical skill will have deteriorated all over the land. We are threatened with a return to methods that prevailed in the time of our grandfathers, when every practitioner was of necessity his own druggist, and when the idea of a bottle or a pill was associated in everybody's mind with a visit to or from the doctor. It is little wonder that the best physicians—the men who love their profession both for what it is and for what it is to be—are incensed against Mr. L. George and his works. The principle of State insurance has been accepted by the country ; but most people will agree that the proper authority to decide on the application of medical benefits is the British Medical Association, in which by statute and by consent the traditions of the great and noble profession of medicine are vested. The whole object of that Association is to relieve suffering and to prolong life ; and if they say, as they emphatically do, that from a medical point of view the Insurance Act is not a good Act, then the Act is already condemned. One of the first things that a Conservative Government will have to do, will be to amend the Act, and to restore to the working classes and the poor those benefits of which they have now been robbed.

Big Game and Sleeping Sickness. The opinions expressed by Dr. Yorke, of the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine in his lecture on sleeping-sickness, will cause consternation to all lovers of animals, for they threaten the magnificent fauna of Africa—the finest in the world—with great reduction, if not with actual extermination. It has for a long time been suspected that wild animals have a great deal to do with the spread of this deadly sickness, but investigation into the manner of its cause has proved so full of difficulty that a course of research, lasting for several years, has only just succeeded in establishing the fact. It was known, as long ago as 1907, that the tsetse fly, that cattle scourge of Central Africa, was a conveyor of the parasite, which communicates the disease, and experience had suggested that the disease was not likely to break out and spread in districts, which were much frequented by wild beasts. Therefore, when in June of 1907, an international conference was held in London, to organise research, one of the objects to which especial attention was directed was to discover "whether and how far the spread of infection was the work of any of the vertebrate fauna (other than man)." Dr. Yorke now says that it is perfectly clear that the "main reservoir of infection" is to be found amongst the big game which still plentifully infest the districts of Central Africa, where the disease is most prevalent. Game, however, is as yet given one chance of existence, for we are told that it is still a moot point whether its extermination would be of any service. The chance of eventually escaping extermination is, however, not a great one, for, at all events, energetic repressive measures should be taken, and, according to Dr. Yorke, everything be done to drive the animals away from human habitations. As these include all native villages, for it is the native population which is devastated by sleeping sickness, breeding grounds will be very much reduced in area, and the animals must inevitably begin to die out. Unfortunately, the question is one of such gravity that it leaves no room for merely sentimental considerations. The disease has been the cause of such widespread mortality amongst the natives, and, by severely limiting the labour supply, has so much restricted the development of a fertile region, that every effort must be made to combat it, even to the extent of destroying Africa's magnificent wild animals. These must inevitably become seriously reduced as civilization advances, and if it is to be for the benefit of the human race, their disappearance must be hastened. Thus it may be that in a few years to come the lion, the giraffe, the hippopotamus, and all our childhood's picture-book favourites will only exist within the borders of a Government game-preserve.

Industry and Education. Mr. Harkissen Lal, president of the Industrial Conference, seems to have spoken in a pessimistic tone in his lengthy allusion to technical and commercial education in the course of his presidential address. He very properly laid stress on the necessity for agricultural education, pointing out that the tilling of the soil afforded a livelihood to ninety per cent. of the population, but the tone which he adopted might have led one to believe that little, if nothing, was being done in India to foster special education of this kind. As a matter of fact, we may remind him that a great deal is being done, especially in Bombay. This class of education, however, is still to a certain degree in an experimental stage, and it would be a mistake with possibly large consequences to hasten too quickly. On this point one need only allude to the important innovation which the Governor recently introduced, and which is on trial in this Presidency, i.e., the teaching of the elementary principles of agriculture in rural schools through the medium of the vernaculars. We have been promised that should this prove to be successful, it will be largely extended, and, if Mr. Harkissen will exercise some patience, he may see similar schemes, their usefulness having been demonstrated in Bombay, adopted widely throughout India. Both Bombay and Madras have agricultural colleges, which are growing in extent and in importance, while the Bombay University will soon have its chair of Commerce. In fact, far from things being at a standstill, there are few matters in which the provincial Governments display more interest. Again Mr. Harkissen would have banking and insurance companies domesticated. If experience in Bombay, where it is the constant complaint that Indian enterprise is daily taking the place of European, be of any value, doubtless these will be domesticated as soon as the Indian proves his fitness to conduct large businesses of this character. At the present moment, however, there is a feeling of distrust of many Indian banking institutions. Banks spring up in nearly every street, some of them being started by people with neither position nor funds to guarantee their stability. These have been the failures, which were only to be expected, and, before Mr. Harkissen's ambition can come near to fulfilment, Indians must learn more cautious and more scrupulous methods.

A New Gun. France has followed the lead of Great Britain in adopting a horse artillery gun for the re-arming of that branch of her service. The French found that the field gun with which their horse batteries are armed is much too heavy for the team, and a new gun of lighter but equally powerful construction became imperative. It is said that the French armament constructors have achieved a success and put a weapon into hands which stands at the top of the field-gunsthrows a 16lb. shell, but is half a ton lighter, which makes a great difference to the team which draws it. The carriage has been lightened, and the limber, also, and as well the time-honoured practice of carrying ammunition in the limber has been abandoned. The new gun and its limber weighs 26½ cwts. as against 37 cwts. of the field gun. It follows the Creusot gun in design, and at the ranges it is understood that it has done exceptionally well. France can now fully claim to have the best horse artillery gun, and the best field artillery gun in existence. Her field gun, after fourteen years' experience, stands unrivalled. The armament for twenty-four gun batteries has been ordered at Creusot's. The French horse artillery gun is slightly heavier than the British horse artillery gun, and throws a shell 3 lbs. heavier. The British gun carries a certain number of rounds (13 pounder shells) in its limber, and that is counted a very strong point in its fighting powers when quick and decisive action—the very life of a horse battery—is required.

A New American Ship. The new American battleship "Pennsylvania," is to be of the "lick creation" type, if the accounts sent from that country are correct. She is described by the Washington despatches as the "largest and most efficient fighting machine yet designed by any navy." Without armour and guns, the Pennsylvania, with a displacement of 31,400 tons, will cost £1,500,000, the total cost being between £2,200,000 and £2,500,000. The length of the battleship at the waterline is 600 feet ; length over all, 608 feet ; beam, 97 feet ; draught 28 ft. 10 inches ; displacement 31,400 tons ; and speed on four-hour trial 21 knots. She will be fitted with oil-burning boilers of the water-tube type. The foregoing dimensions show that the "Pennsylvania" will be some 4,000 tons heavier than the heaviest British Dreadnought, but it is not so swift at full power. Most likely the new battleship will be armed with the 14-inch gun, of which so much has been said and written.

RUSSIA AND THE BALKANS.

French Presidency.

BAVARIA'S NEED OF A KING.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

PARIS, Dec. 21.

In the course of a statement on governmental policy in the Duma on Wednesday afternoon M. Kokovtsef, the Prime Minister, referring to the Balkan war, said that the warlike virtues and rare unanimity manifested by the Balkan peoples could not fail to find the warmest sympathy in all Russian hearts. He continued :—"In her capacity of a great Slavonic Orthodox Power, which has made innumerable sacrifices to protect her racial brothers and co-religionists, Russia cannot remain indifferent as to whether these peoples obtain conditions of existence which, being in consonance with their achievements and the torrents of blood they have shed, would definitely ensure to them their vital interests and pacific development, and would avert for the future the probability of fresh complications, always calculated to endanger the peace of Europe. Mindful of the best traditions of our history, in agreement with our clearly expressed public opinion, the Russian Imperial Government could certainly not underrate the primordial interests of Russia. The Government observes with satisfaction that it has not to change the calm attitude adopted from the outset in the midst of anxiety and excitement. The Government has given no reason for us to be suspected of selfish designs or of a desire to aggravate conflicts. It has invariably been guided by the sole desire of remaining the guardian of its historic duties and its dignity. It would be premature to discuss for the moment by what means any particular question raised by the events in the Balkans will be settled. The fundamental principles by which the Government ought to be guided when the hour for final decision has sounded are indicated as much by our past as by the necessity of combining it with the conditions of present policy. Faithful to our alliance and understandings with the other Great Powers and sure of the support of our friends and allies, we for our part can see no use in setting up groups of Powers one against the other. Any Government which would abandon the ground of common discussion of the fundamental questions of the present political situation by putting forward its immediate and still more its secondary interests would be assuming a grave moral responsibility for the eventual possibility of ulterior international complication. "The Great Powers have, too, powerful reasons for endeavouring to prevent the future development of complications to a degree which might menace European peace. The Russian Government hopes that the united efforts by which they are inspired will help them to arrive at an agreement regarding a settlement which will reconcile their interests with the just demands of the Balkan States. That is why the Government extends a most sincere welcome to the initiative of the British Government, which has proposed a preliminary discussion in common of the question relating to the liquidation of the war, in which questions their interests are at stake. The sympathetic reception extended to this proposal in the capitals of Europe, as well as the meeting of Ambassadors in London which has just opened, ought, we hope, to facilitate a pacific solution of the present crisis. Actuated by the sincere desire to co-operate by all the means in our power in the preservation of European peace, the Russian Government expresses the hope that with the help of the Almighty our efforts will be crowned with success, and that events in the future will not harmfully affect the vital interests of Russia which we are called upon to defend with all our strength in the name of the honour and dignity of our country."

M. BOURGEOIS AND THE FRENCH PRESIDENCY.

For some time past the question as to who is to be elected President of the Republic when M. Fallieres' term of office expires in January has seemed to depend upon acceptance by M. Leon Bourgeois of the candidature. On Wednesday an influential meeting of the Radical-Socialist majority, including thirty ex-Ministers, unanimously approved the candidature of M. Bourgeois, and a deputation proceeded to his private house to communicate this decision. The interview lasted an hour, and resulted in the Minister for Labour definitely declining the honour, and stating that the serious reasons of health, which from the beginning had compelled him to refuse the offer made him, still existed. He esteemed it an imperious duty of conscience not to accept a charge all of whose burdens he might not be able to support. M. Bourgeois suffers a great deal from defective eyesight, and he has altogether a somewhat delicate constitution for meeting the manifold calls made on a French President. At the same time there is also the fact that, although he was practically certain of his election by the Radical-Socialist majority and friends, this group excluded the Progressives and other good Republicans. Consequently he would have been the nominee of a party, and this was by no means desirable. The whole field is now open, but though plenty of names are now whispered, none has yet been officially put forward. M. Poincare, the Premier, is sure of weighty support should he wish to pose as a candidate, as many believe he will, but the best informed think he will prefer to wait for an honour that is almost certain to be his later, and to continue for the present as head of the Government. Other prospective candidates are MM. Deschanel, Ribot, Pams, David, and Dubost, and some say also M. Clemenceau and General Lyautey. Seldom have the lists been so open in so short a time before the election, and the possible "dark horse" may appear at the last moment to profit by the splitting of votes amongst the various party favourites of the Chamber and the Senate.

BAVARIA'S NEED OF A KING.

Eulogistic references to the late Prince Regent of Bavaria occupy a prominent place in the Berlin newspapers, and in some journals approval is shown of the idea which is obtaining such popular favour in Bavaria itself that Prince Luitpold's son, the new Regent, should be invested with regal powers, under the title of Ludwig III. It is recognised that King Otto's insanity is beyond cure, and it is felt that the interests of the country demand the personal attention of a Sovereign de jure et de facto. This sentiment finds utterance in Munich journals of all shades of opinion, and one of the most important, the "Munchener Neueste Nachrichten," is quoted as saying:—

"Reasons of State demand that the general opinion of the country shall be taken into account and that the authority which resides in direct personal sovereignty shall be restored to the constitutional life of Bavaria." Prussia is joining very sincerely in the mourning for the late ruler of Bavaria, for although he fought in 1866 against Prussia, his son, now the Prince Regent, was wounded severely in the leg at Helmstadt, in the France-Prussian war of 1870. It is expected that Court mourning will be declared for three weeks, and it is already announced that several sons of the Kaiser will be present at the funeral. All the active reigning heads of the German States are also expected to be present. In the course of the many notices of the Regent's strenuous career numerous anecdotes are related as to his prowess as an athlete and sportsman, his bonhomie, simplicity, and love of encouragement of all the arts. Though 91, it was only a few montht's ago that he admitted that he was growing old. Last year he is reported to have said of a friend who died at 75: "I told you he would never live to be old." Two years ago he transferred a keeper sixty years old from the mountains to a position in the plains (which is considered a disgrace) because the man, in an outburst of familiarity such as all companions of the Regent were tempted to assume, said, on hearing the Regent complain of stiffness, "Yes, we are no longer the agile hares of yore."

DOCTORS OUTWITTED.

Prince Luitpold was a great smoker, and many stories are told about him in this connection. He is reported to have made many a painter ill by offering him a cigar out of good fellowship in the morning when making one of his frequent rounds of the Munich studios. He also refused to pay the tax on cigars, which was introduced a few years ago, though he waived his right of exemption to all other taxes. In his early days he was a devotee of the long Bavarian pipe, but later he grew fonder of a cigar, of which he smoked sixteen daily. Then his doctors intervened, and allowed him only four. The Regent was too much for them, however, for after sundry inquiries, he equipped himself with cigars of abnormal length, taking a couple of hours to smoke. In his later days a servant had to be posted in the neighbourhood because of the constant danger that in falling asleep he might let his pipe or cigar fall, and thus cause a conflagration. As regards the simplicity of his daily life, it is reported that after the death of his wife he would send a palace servant to fetch his meals from the nearest restaurant, and that even at his great age he could never be persuaded to buy a fur coat, and never wore one untill his daughter, the Princess Therese, who was his friend and confidante till the end, bought him one, and made him try it on. His clothes were of the simplest kind, and there is a legend in Munich that his brown summer suit was older than his twelve-ear-old great grandson. These are only a few of the hundred amusing stories concerning the life history of one who well knew how to be both man and monarch. As regards his political history, several newspapers lay stress on the tragedy that enveloped his succession to power, and the hostility that was more or less openly shown through the popular belief that the madness of King Otto was an excuse put forward by an ambitious Prince. This feeling the Regent long outlived, until, during his last years, he was, perhaps, the most beloved of all European personages. Some idea of his intense popularity in Munich may be gained from the fact that during his illness the square outside the palace was crowded the whole night with persons awaiting the publication of bulletins.

ENGLAND'S PARSEVAL AIRSHIP.

Much more amusement than excitement has been caused by the attempt made during the last few days to produce a popular outcry against the sale of a Parseval airship to England. The indifferent disposition of the public will doubtless not be disturbed by the publication of a reply from the manufacturers to the reproach that they were working contrary to the nation's best interests. The company state that they would not act without the certainty of agreement with the authorities. The reply goes on:—"The Government says, and quite righty, that it is better for us to deliver airships abroad if we cannot make our business a paying one through home orders. In doing this we increase our capacity and that of Germany. With the Zeppelin firm the case is different, as they have command of large funds collected by public subscription, whilst we find it impossible to raise any further capital. As regards our loyalty, the names of the members of our board of management speak for themselves." This attempt to stir up popular feeling against Great Britain has had small success, for even such a Chauvinist journal as the "Tagliche Rundschau" sees no objection to the sale of a Parseval airship to England. The "Vossische Zeitung" gives a long list of somewhat similar cases in which German manufacturers were accused of working against the nation's interests, and shows how Bismarck distinctly refused to intervene. It is patent, among other things, that if German artillery is good to-day, it is largely because of its great sale abroad. Such outbursts are generally traceable to business rivalry, but the present case, however, has special interest as it indicates a considerable change in the public mind in favour of a more temperate consideration of Anglo-German relations.

AUSTRIAN MILITARY BILLS.

In the course of Tuesday's sitting of the Lower House of the Austrian Reichsrath, the Czech Radicals, in order to obstruct the second reading of the Bill providing for the services to be rendered in case of war by private individuals and communes in the matter of means of transport, proposed the closure of the discussion, then adjournment of the sitting, and finally moved that the House should proceed to other business. All these proposals were rejected, and the Chamber decided to begin the second reading of the Bill. The Czech Radicals then protested against the names appearing on the list of speakers, amid great uproar. In spite of this, the reporter, Dr. Stoelzel, rose and made a speech, which was loudly cheered by the Left. At length the uproar subsided, and the debate on the Bill was continued. The Budget Committee is discussing the vote on account. M. Gostinar (Slovenian) rose to speak at six o'clock and concluded next morning after talking for 13 1-2 hours without the slightest pause. He moved the closing of the sitting, which was rejected by 30 votes to 2.

THE BALKAN ULTIMATUM.

DISQUIETING SYMPTOMS OF RUPTURE.

Turks Determined to Retain Adrianople.

RUMANIAN INTERVENTION IMPROBABLE.

Bulgaria Proposes a Slight Concession.

GREEK AND TURKISH FLEETS ENGAGED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY

LONDON, JAN. 3.

Owing to the Turkish delegates being again without full instructions, the Peace Conference met only at 6 o'clock this evening. The Allies presented a three-fold ultimatum, dealing with Adrianople, Crete and the Ægean Islands. They intimated that, failing a clear and satisfactory reply thereanent by four on Monday afternoon, they would break off negotiations. The Turks suggested four to-morrow afternoon and the Allies agreed.

The Turks' reply is regarded as ominous, and as indicating that they feel a rupture to be inevitable.

LATER.

It was the Turkish response to the demand made by the Allies at the last meeting, for definite proposals, that led to the ultimatum. The Turks proposed a boundary starting near Adrianople and leaving that city to Turkey, thence following the River Arda westward and then to Lagos Bay, eastward of Thasos. As regards Crete, the Turks proposed to renounce Turkish rights in favour of a great Power, who would determine its future regime, on condition that the cession of no other island was demanded. The Allies replied regretting that the Turks ignored the results of the war, which would justify the Allies in breaking off negotiations forthwith, but as a proof of their conciliatory spirit they requested the Turks to make proposals on Monday, relinquishing their rights in Crete to the Allies, and ceding the islands of the Ægean Sea and the town of Adrianople, otherwise negotiations would be broken off. The Turks replied as stated above.

SOFIA, JAN. 4.

King Ferdinand, replying to an address from Sobranje, said he still hoped that a definite understanding would result from the negotiations; "but," he added, "should the inscrutable Divine will decree otherwise, we shall not hesitate again to resort to arms, and to extort from the enemy satisfaction corresponding to our sacrifices.

THE RUMANIAN FACTOR.

LONDON, JAN. 4.

The papers are of opinion that the Powers are bound to intervene if the Conference ends in a rupture.

The arrival of M. Jonescu, the Rumanian Minister of the Interior, in London, has drawn attention to the relations between Bulgaria and Rumania, which are regarded as a serious factor in the crisis. It is thought possible that the Turks are speculating on the intervention of Rumania, but the Bulgarians in London regard such intervention as impossible, as it would inevitably embroil the Powers.

M. Jonescu, who conferred with Dr. Daneff yesterday, in a course of an interview with Reuter, said: "We have hitherto made sacrifices to keep the peace, but cannot give a pledge for the future." He declined to discuss the reports regarding the territory Rumania had demanded from Bulgaria.

BUKHAREST, JAN. 4.

The officers of the reserve have been ordered to prepare to join the colours at any moment.

STUBBORN ATTITUDE OF THE TURKS.

LONDON, JAN. 4.

Reuter learns that the Turkish delegates are absolutely determined not to yield Adrianople or the Ægean Islands, come what may. A rupture at to-day's Conference now seems certain.

The Times states that as a result of conversations between Dr. Daneff and M. Jonescu, it is believed that the Bulgarians, on the advice of Russia, are willing to concede a slightly rectified frontier, following a straight line through Silistria to the Black Sea. The Rumanians want much more, but do not contemplate a resort to arms.

A meeting of Ambassadors took place at the Foreign Office this afternoon. Some of the peace delegates were present. Reshid Pasha at the last moment asked to-day's president of the Peace Conference to postpone the Conference till Monday, as they had not received instructions from Constantinople.

ATTITUDE OF ALLIES.

The Balkan delegates officially inform Reuter that, unless the Turks on Monday comply with all the demands of the ultimatum, the Allies will immediately break off negotiations, and, in accordance with the terms of the armistice, four days later hostilities will be resumed all along the line. Any Turkish suggestion to refer the matter to the Powers will be regarded as a question for Turkey herself, with which the Allies have nothing to do.

The Montenegrin peace delegate, interviewed by Reuter, declared that Turkey's scruples with regard to ceding Ardianople were most exaggerated. He pointed out that they had ceded Adrianople by the Treaty of San Stefano. The Bulgarians would make the largest concessions in the matter of religion and would assure forever worship in the Mosque Selim, with privilege and respect for the sacred places of the dynasty of Osman. He added that four hundred thousand Mahomedans in Bulgaria enjoyed the greatest freedom and exemption from military service.

CONSTANTINOPLE, JAN. 4.

After a Cabinet Council lasting for two hours, fresh instructions have been sent to the delegates in London to-day. It is understood that they have been ordered to reject the ultimatum.

WILL THE POWERS PREVENT WAR?

LONDON, JAN. 5.

Reuter learns that well-informed circles believe that the war will not be resumed. It is felt that the Powers will, and must, intervene.

In an interview with Reuter's representative, Dr. Daneff said that the relations between Bulgaria and Rumania were of the best. There was no reason to suppose that any question, for instance the rectification of the frontier, would not be satisfactorily settled at the end of the war.

The Liverpool Courier states that the conference of Lancashire Unionists urged the exclusion of food taxes from the Unionist programme, and it was plainly indicated that if the conference of Lancashire and Cheshire Unionists, to be held on the 11th of January, passed a hostile resolution, Mr. Bonar Law would seriously consider the question of resignation.

INDIAN HOARDINGS.

Samuel, Montagu and Co.'s Views.

SILVER FORECAST.

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY,)

LONDON, JAN. 3.

The annual bullion letter of Messrs. Samuel, Montagu and Co. remarks on the great prosperity of India, which is more thorough than a superficial observer can possibly imagine. It results largely in the accumulation of dead capital, in marked contrast to a country with highly organised finance, like France, whose savings are utilised to promote the trade of the world. It will be greatly to the advantage of India, when the natives learn to turn some portion of their savings into remunerative investments. The bulk of the hoarded wealth of India is buried, and nearly all the gold dug in South Africa is buried afresh in the soil of India.

Adverting to the purchases of silver, the letter says that a comparison of the average price of 1907, when the purchases of the Government of India drove the market up to 30 3/16, with an average of 28¼, at which the whole of the first five millions sterling was acquired by the India Council, indicates the handsome saving that the Government of India has effected by secret purchases.

The letter says that, looking broadly at the prospects of 1913, it is fair to assume that a slightly larger world's production will be reached, and that prices will be checked from rising much higher, even though the demand may prove keen, by sales of coined silver from Mexico and elsewhere.

AVIATION IN CALCUTTA.

Interesting Flights in two Monoplanes.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, JAN. 5.

This afternoon two aviators, M. Verminik and M. Perispse, made four successful flights from the racecourse before very large and enthusiastic crowds.

M. Verminik was the first to rise in the two-seater Bleriot monoplane "Rajah," and executed several interesting manœvres in the air, especially a sharp-angled turn over Alipore.

M. Perispse gave next an exhibition in a single-seated monoplane. M. Verminik then rose again, closely followed by M. Perispse, and remained in the air for about an hour, the former making a tour of several miles across the Hooghly, over and beyond Howrah, and back over northern Calcutta. In descending they competed to come to earth as near the marked spot as possible. Both were very close, but M. Perispse was the nearest.

A number of military officers were interested spectators.

THE OPIUM DIFFICULTY.

Suspension of Indian Sales Notified.

GLUT AT SHANGHAI.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

DELHI, JAN. 4.

A Press communique states:—"As the result of the stringent opium measures adopted by the Chinese authorities, the sale of Indian opium at the Treaty Ports has now come practically to a standstill, with the consequence that large stocks have accumulated at Shanghai and elsewhere, estimatad at no less than 29,000 chests.

In view of the gravity of the situation, the Government of India have decided to suspend the sales of certified opium until a clearance of the stocks can be effected. The Government of India are bound, however, under the conditions of sale, to give three months' notice of their intention to discontinue the sale of opium destined for China. There will be no sale at Calcutta after the sale of a small lot of 170 chests already fixed for the 1st April next, and no sale in Bombay after the sale already fixed for the 12th March next. An enhanced upset price will be announced in respect of the obligatory sales held before those dates.

In order to facilitate the lightening of the stocks held in the Treaty Ports, it has been decided as a temporary measure to reduce the amount of opium to be sold during 1913 for consumption, in countries other than China, from 13,200 chests to 9,000 chests. The sale of Marwar opium will, as has already been notified, cease altogether after the year 1913.

SERVICES COMMISSION.

Itinerary arranged for This Year.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, JAN. 4.

The work in connection with the Islington Commission has proceeded apace during the past few days. Besides arranging the details for the first meeting in this city, which will take place on Wednesday, the 8th instant, the secretaries have addressed themselves to the work that awaits them in the rest of India. Answers to the interrogatories sent out, have been called in, and the details for the sittings of the Commission in other places are also being threshed out. So far as this city is concerned, the Commission will first assemble on the 8th instant, and proceed with its work of examination until probably the 20th instant. Then, as at present arranged, it will proceed to Calcutta, where the sittings will last for nearly a fortnight. From Calcutta, the Commission is likely to travel on to Burma, and from there recross to India, and assemble for work in the new province of Assam. Here it is probable it will not be long detained. From Assam, it will proceed to Bombay, a rather long jump, considering the respective situations of these parts of the Indian continent. At the western capital a brief halt will be called, and, after the close of the sitting there, the Commission will proceed in all probability to Lahore, from where it will travel down to Delhi, and thence to a few other centres. This will possibly complete the preliminary examination work of the Commission in this country for this year. The Commission will probably sail home from Bombay about the middle of April, thus devoting a period of about a hundred days in all in collecting the evidence of Indian and European witnesses in all parts of this country. The Commission will, after a sojourn in England of over seven months, return to India, when they are expected to visit Madras once again. It is possible that during this visit, the Commission will find it possible to stay longer in this part of British India, and thus make up for the rather hurried visit with which it has had to be satisfied on the present occasion.

A FATAL AFFRAY.

Soldier Charged with Murder of Policeman.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, JAN. 5.

From Chowkey Point, over twenty-five miles up the Rangoon river, comes to-day a report of the murder of a police head constable named Sunder Singh, by Gunner Denmark of No. 64 Company, Royal Garrison Artillery, a few days ago.

It appears that Trumpeter Harwood and Gunners Denmark, Evans, Brown and Chapman, of the same Company, went to a beer shop at Thilwa and became drunk, and some of them misconducted themselves. A report was made to the village headman, who was advised to inform the police at the oil works. Sub-Inspector Ahmed Khan, Head Constable Sunder Singh, and two constables left for the scene of disturbance. The sub-inspector ordered the villagers, who had surrounded the soldiers, to leave them alone. As the villagers went back to their houses, the soldiers saw the policemen move towards them, and Denmark, who was holding an open clasp-knife in his hands, made a lunge at him. The sub-inspector evaded the blow, and, as Sunder Singh rushed up to save him, he was stabbed in the abdomen by Denmark, and fell down. Sunder Singh rose to his feet, and with a stick knocked away the knife from the hand of his assailant, who was pursued, and arrested in a creek. The weapon was recovered and made over to the police.

Sunder Singh was brought to the Rangoon General Hospital, where he succumbed to his injuries.

Denmark, who was made over to the civil authorities, will be tried on the 14th instant by the Senior Magistrate of Hantavaddy.

GOVERNOR'S SPEECH.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, JAN. 4.

The first meeting of the new Legislative Council was held to-day. Fifty members were present, and Lord Pentland presided. All the members took the oath of allegiance, after which Lord Pentland opened the proceedings in a short speech.

The business to-day was of a formal character. The Hon. Mr. Sivaswami Iyer moved for leave to introduce a bill further to amend the Madras District Municipalities Act, and the Madras Local Boards Act, 1884, which was granted. Lord Pentland next deputed the hon. member for Finance to preside over the meeting of the non-official members in order that they may elect six of their number to be members of the Finance Committee, which will meet on the 20th January.

The non-official members nominated the Hon. Mr. C. Vijiaraghava Chariar, and the Hon. Nawab Syed Mohamed Sahib Bahadur to represent them in the Imperial Legislative Council. The Hon. Mr. N. Subbarao has thus been unseated.

Before the business closed, the Hon. Dr. T. M. Nair, on behalf of his non-official colleagues and of the people whom they represented, expressed the greatest detestation at the cruel outrage perpetrated on the Viceroy. He said the anarchists did not belong to any human race. They were the enemies of society, and, as such, it is the duty of every Government and every citizen to exterminate them. Addressing the President, the speaker said: "My Lord, please accept our assurance that in this endeavour to exterminate this human pest, your Lordship's Government can rely on the full and hearty co-operation of the non-official members of this Council." The speaker also took the opportunity to express congratulations to Lord and Lady Hardinge on their providential escape. He added "Lord Hardinge has already found an abiding place in the hearts and the affection of the people of this country, and we hope and pray that he may soon be restored to health, to continue the good work of furthering the prosperity, contentment and happiness of the people entrusted to his Excellency's care."

Lord Pentland replied as follows to the Council:—I am sure the non-official members, in whose name particularly Dr. Nair has spoken, will wish me, in the first place, to accept with profound feelings of sympathy and satisfaction the words which have just fallen from them, as representing not only the feelings of those for whom particularly they have spoken, but feelings in which we can all share. They and the other members of the Council will, I am sure, further wish me to convey, as I shall be proud to do, this expression of its feeling in this matter. You will, perhaps, be interested to hear the latest bulletin received from Delhi, to the effect that the Viceroy's general progress is satisfactory. There was a slight decrease in the aching of the wound all yesterday, and the process of healing is proceeding slowly. Lord Hardinge and Lady Hardinge have gone through a very severe trial, with courage and fortitude that has commanded admiration far beyond the bounds of India. I am sure our hearts have been with them in all that they have gone through, and we hope and pray for the Viceroy's complete recovery, so that he may continue to devote his strength, in the fullness of his powers, to the good of the people of India."

The Council then adjourned to the 18th February.

ANOTHER RAJA'S OFFER.

DELHI, JAN. 4.

The following bulletin was issued from Viceregal Lodge at 8 a.m., to-day:—"H. E. the Viceroy's general progress is satisfactory. There was a slight decrease in the aching of the wounds all yesterday, and the process of healing is proceeding slowly."

DELHI, JAN. 5.

The following bulletin was issued from Viceregal Lodge at 8-30 a.m. to-day:—"H. E. the Viceroy is gaining strength. The smaller wounds are healing. Those in the back and shoulder are healing more slowly. His Excellency was in the garden yesterday. His Excellency passed a good night."

DELHI, JAN. 4.

It is understood that the Raja of Jhind has paid to the Delhi authorities the sum of Rs. 5,000 to add to the reward for the detection of the perpetrators of the recent bomb outrage in Delhi.

The Ahmedabad Municipal Committee of Management sent a message and received a similar reply from the Viceroy's Private Secretary.

A wire was sent by Nawabzada Naserullah Khan, General Secretary, on behalf of the members of the Governing Board of the Bombay Presidency Mahomedan Educational Conference and the Private Secretary to H. E. the Viceroy replied.

A telegram has been received by Mr. Manmohandas Ramji, chairman, Bombay Native Piece-Goods Merchants, Association, Bombay, acknowledging the Association telegram to the Viceroy.

The bulletin issued at Delhi on the morning of the 2nd instant, says the "Pioneer," speaks of the pain which the Viceroy is suffering from his wounds and of slight fever. It is not surprising that such should be the case as the injuries were eventually found to be more severe than first examinations showed. Thus the wound on the right shoulder was eight inches long, one and a half inches deep at the deepest point, and three inches in width at its upper part where the laceration of the muscles was greatest. Two other wounds in the neck and right hip respectively (being minor surface wounds and blisters from explosion) were fairly deep punctures. His Excellency's progress has undoubtedly been wonderful, and there has been no set back, which is all the more matter for satisfaction and congratulations, considering the extent of his injuries.

CALCUTTA SHARE MARKET.

Indications of a Boom in Coal Stocks.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, JAN. 4.

The markets here re-opened on Thursday after a holiday extending over eight days, and, as they have not yet had time to get into their stride, there is little of interest to record this week. After a long holiday, such as we have had, things are always unsettled for some days, and it is not always safe to judge by opening quotations. While realising the truth of this, however, one is bound to say that the indications in the market regarding coal shares are that another boom is expected. It is, of course, to the interest of certain parties to foster such a belief, but, that apart, there is undoubtedly a strong, dull feeling in the market, and operators confidently expect that before long prices will be up to the high level to which they rose in the little boom which kept the market excited for some weeks just before the Pujahs. There is money to be made just now by speculators out of coal shares, for an all-round rise of market values of good coal concerns seems certain, owing to the improving conditions of the coal trade, and because holders of coal shares have shown that they are now content with lower returns on their outlay than they have hitherto demanded. The prospects of Bengal coal are really good, and there is no reason why shares of selected coal companies should not be sound, remunerative and easily realisable investments.

Barabonis were done on at Rs. 16-12 on Thursday, Rs. 17-4 on Friday, and Rs. 17-8 to-day. Bhalgoras have risen from Rs. 25-8 to Rs. 26-12, Bhuskajuris from Rs. 14 to Rs. 15-12, Gopalichucks from Rs. 11-12 to Rs. 12-4, Kuardis from Rs. 16 to Rs. 17-12, Lakurkas Rs. 26-4 to Rs. 27-4, and Raniganges, Rs. 22 to Rs. 24-4.

The market to-day has been very firm, with a large business transacted, the operations covering a large area, with prices well maintained, and in some instances showing a further advance.

Jute shares, which to-day were not in much demand, have found a number of purchasers for wise investment since the market opened. The prices of these shares are just now near top limit, but are worth buying as an investment, even at high prices, for the dividends for the second half of 1912 and the first half of this year will be high.

Albions (ordinary) were bought on Thursday at Rs. 147, Northbrooks (pref.) at Rs. 110, Alliances (ord.) Rs. 129, Barnagores (ord.) Rs. 77, Rs. 77-8, Rs. 78 and Rs. 79, Deltas (ord.) Rs. 129, and Howrahs (pref.) Rs. 123.

Local bankers are prepared to meet the coming demand, which is expected to be heavy, especially from Burma.

The Bank of Bengal has gauged the situation correctly, and the rate of interest, 7 per cent., is just right, making Bengal a point better than either Bombay or Madras. Some time ago it was prophesied that the rate would be 9 per cent. before the end of the year, but this has been avoided.

As regards the jute and gunny markets, there was little doing for sometime before the holidays, and the same state of affairs still prevails. Business has been reported up to Rs. 61 in jute, but on a very small scale. In the gunny market sellers' prices for hessians are, for January Rs. 18 and Rs. 14, February—March Rs. 17-8 and Rs. 13-12, April—June Rs. 16 and Rs. 12-8, and July—September Rs. 15-4 and Rs. 12.

ANOTHER REPORT.

To-day the market for coal shares ruled very firm, and a large business was transacted, the operations covering a large area with prices well maintained, and in some instances showing a further advance. Jute shares were not in much demand. In the jute market there is still nothing doing, sellers at Rs. 61 looking for buyers. The gunny market was quieter, little business being done, and it is expected that it will be well into next week before there is any brisk business in the market.

BOMBAY RACES.

Second Meeting a bad Day for Favourites.

It was a bad day for favourites at the Bombay Second Extra Meeting yesterday afternoon. Only one of them, Bachelor's Knot, managed to climb home, after looking all over a beaten horse. Canterbury, Braganza, Noor-ul-Malik and others of the fancied went down. As a result, dividends on the Win Tote were fairly good, ranging from a little over even money on Bachelor's Knot to ten to one against France in the last race of the day. There was also some fairly good place money drawn, Rs. 72-8 on Baldwin, and Rs. 46-8 on Abdul Aziz, being the highest. Many were disappointed that Lot did not fetch a better price for his place in the first race. Abdul Aziz did well, but the dividend of Rs. 429 he produced on Wednesday was not again forthcoming.

Bachelor's Knot race was perhaps the best of the day. Up to almost the last possible moment, he was in the background, with both Forfeit and Lord Carlyon ahead of him. He had bad luck in being shut in by Lord Carlyon, but as they came to the corner of the Grand Stand, Templeman found an opening, and came through to win comfortably. Another good race was seen in the Colaba Plate, when that good horse, Baloz, which is perhaps the finest Arab running just now, won a fine set to Rozelmulook, and gave the great Braganza, who was hot favourite, a sound trouncing. Hamdoon in this race again disappointed many backers, tailing his field nearly all the way. In the Byculla Plate, a tall slashing chestnut named Afzur Jung ran third to those old stagers—Shirsab and Real. This animal will bear watching in his next few outings, and another animal, who will perhaps fetch a handsome dividend presently, is Khedavi Miseer, who ran fourth in the first division of the Neral Plate. Noor-ul-Malik, a hot favourite for the Byculla Plate, ran most disappointingly—"like a dog," as one disappointed backer put it. In the same race Good Success failed to place.

Honours amongst the jockeys were fairly evenly divided. Evans had a couple of comfortable wins in Mafush and Mulla, but Brown, who, it is stated, was feeling far from well, only got home once, when he won a good race on Real. The public, as usual, showed a strong determination to back his mounts, irrespective of the chances of the horse, and in the first race of the day, Canterbury was made favourite for apparently no other reason. In winning on Bavan and France, Ruiz gave his backers some good money. This jockey, though he is not particularly well-known in Bombay, rode plenty of winners last Poona season, and is among the best in Calcutta.

On the whole, backers came away well-satisfied with the afternoon's sport. The artistic race card, which is now provided, met with unstinted admiration. The changing pictures of well-known horses in the front cover would make an interesting collection for any enthusiastic punters, and the authorities might accept the suggestion that pictures of some of the better known horses and jockeys reproduced in the same manner, but on a larger scale than now shown in the front cover of the race card, would be eagerly purchased by many admirers amongst the public.

The Race:—Rozelmulook led out from Braganza and Baloz. At the six furlongs, Baloz fell back a little, but improved his position at the five-furlong post, Rozelmulook still leading. All the jockeys seemed to be taking it easy. Hamdoon, who got away badly, was lying last, but at five furlongs closed up a little. Approaching the bend, Rozelmulook was going easy, with Baloz in close attendance, but, rounding the corner, Baloz came through his field, and a great tussle ensued past the enclosure, Baloz squeezing home by a short head. Three lengths between second and third.

The Race:—There was some considerable delay at the starting post, owing to Noor-ul-Malik giving trouble. Afzar Jung eventually led off, closely followed by Good Success. Noor-ul-Malik got away badly, and, throughout the race, ran like a griffin, showing a strong disinclination to tackle the work in hand. Shirsab was lying well up with the leaders, and led into the straight, but in front of the second enclosure, Real, well-ridden by Brown, came away to win comfortably by a length. Three lengths between second and third.

The Race:—The field were again slow in getting away. Krushan led out, followed by Ream. British King, a horse fancied by many, got left at the start, and had bad luck throughout. At the half-mile, Ream was winning second, with Mafush not far off, and Baldwin lying close. In the straight, Mafush came away to win easily from Ream, who was carrying 2lbs over weight. British King finished fourth. Three lengths between first and second, half a length between second and third.

The Race:—Forfeit took the lead from North and Bachelor's Knot. Passing the third furlong, the field tailed out a bit, but Bachelor's Knot appeared to be running badly, and a good deal shut in, but opposite the Grand Stand, and almost at the last possible moment, Templeman found an opening, and came away to win by three-quarters of a length from Lord Carlyon, who finished a length ahead of Forfeit.

Time:—1 min. 30 1-5secs.

The Totalizator paid Rs. 23-8 for win, and Rs. 13 and Rs. 19 for places. Total takings of Win Tote Rs. 7,340, and Place Tote Rs. 3,370.

BOMBAY YACHTING.

Surprising Win for Marie Louise.

The breeze at 3 o'clock on Saturday was light and fluky. The C class boats were first away, and made a pretty start, as they were all smartly over the line with the gun. We were glad to see Mr. Comber afloat once more, and also our Belgian visitor, who was sailing He Tuqke After making a good start, Pam was unfortunate in getting into a patch of calm and dropped behind on the reach down to Sunk Rock. Mavourneen, as usual, led the way, followed by Marie Louise, Jenny Wren, and Cricket, a considerable gap existing between these boats and the rest of the fleet. We missed Curlew, whose sporting owners were unable to sail yesterday. Marie Louise, who was sailing unusually well yesterday, established a lead before the first mark was reached, and held it round Mark Buoy. At this point Mavourneen picked up and forged ahead. When these boats reached the stern of s.s. Rakaia at middle ground, Mavourneen was leading, but once again she was badly served by the wind, and Marie Louise crept ahead, and held her lead round the committee vessel. At this point, as a wag remarked after the race, she did the turkey trot round the short course, followed by Mavourneen doing the Gaby glide, and eventually got the gun, somewhat to the surprise of everyone. Pam took second prize on time, Cricket third prize, and Fenella saved entrance. As we understand with regret that Pam will not be sailed again this season by the charming yachtswoman who was on board yesterday, it was disappointing that she was so shabbily served by the wind and did not win first prize.

In the Metre class, Cynthia was first over the line, closely followed by Corrie and Nelta. Maya did a jibe on the line when waiting for the gun, which was ten seconds late, according to some watches. The order round S. Karanja was Nelta, Maya, Corrie, Cynthia and Mynona and this order was maintained up to N. Karanja. After passing the committee vessel (first time round), Nelta hesitated, and nearly fouled N. Karanja buoy, having missed the tide. Corrie was hampered by a tramp steamer, who came uncomfortably close to look at her on the run down to N. Karanja. On the reach, Mynona passed Cynthia, and the final order was Nelta, Maya, Corrie, Mynona, Cynthia. Nelta failed to save her time, so Maya was first, and Nelta second. We were delighted to see Maya afloat again. There are so few yachts in Bombay at the present time, we cannot afford to keep any out of commission in the racing season. (Hongkong, by the way, has now two Yacht Clubs and a pleasure fleet of sixty vessels. Mombassa and Zanzibar are also going ahead, so Bombay must look to her laurels as the premier Eastern Yachting Port.) As Maya only went into the water on Saturday morning, she had little time to get things snugged down, and in fact finished bending her mainsail on the run to S. Karanja.

Trixie won the B class race, which had a most exciting finish, Trixie, Erin and Lylie being on each other's heels at the committee vessel. We hear Lylie touched the ground at Sunk Rock, and thus lost her lead in the race. It is also whispered that M. Louise bumped at this point, but neither boats appear to have been damaged. We were glad to see a good entry of ships' boats, but the wind was too light to suit these boats. Highflyer's Pinnace took first prize and Dalhousie's new cutter second prize. The latter appears to be a nicely built craft, and should do well later on when the breezes come. We missed Eileen in A class, and as Turquoise did not start, the race was not an exciting one. Isca saved her time on Mahshuka, and Melody and took first prize. The latter boat is looking very smart this season, and appears to be none the worse for her recent accident. On Wednesday evening Minx returned from her four weeks' cruise down the coast, and we were glad to find her owner looking bronzed and well and bearded like the Pard. His cruise was in every way a most delightful one.

BOMBAY HUNT.

Sahar village was the appointed rendezvous for yesterday's hunt, and in the cold of the morning some fifty ardent followers met at daybreak on the far side of the melon ground, close to the village. It was very pleasing to see as many as six ladies present, which, I believe, is the most we have seen out this season.

Hounds moved off in the direction of the barracks, and quickly proclaimed a find in the trees close to the far side of the village, and went merrily away over the paddy fields towards Wakola, but our hopes of a good run were short-lived, as, after a quick burst of ten minutes or so, hounds killed their jack on the flats close to the backwater.

The brush was presented to Mrs. Kirby.

A move was then made back to the church at Sahar, and a short space elapsed, while two of the hounds, who had suffered slightly in the chase were sent home. The master then decided to try the covert on the far side of the church, and it was not long before hounds gave tongue to a good line, going away in the direction of the backwater.

When we reached the cultivated gardens close up to the Andheri-road, hounds turned left-handed, and, swinging back in a circle towards Sahar again, our quarry once more went off towards the stone bridge over the backwater on the Andheri-road; after crossing which, he made off left-handed along the side of the Vehar-road. It was here that two cyclists, whether from fright or sheer sporting instinct, bravely hurled themselves into the ditch to make way for the gallant pack and the galloping field. It struck one at the time that in the circumstances it was about the wisest thing they could do. From here we went gaily off in the direction of the Marole caves, and, after going over a splendid line of country, the jack set his mask for the "creme de la creme" of the whole Salsette country, the Goregaon grasslands.

Before actually reaching the grasslands, we were treated to some stony places, but the majority escaped without damage.

The hounds were hunting splendidly, though not quite so fast as they have been doing of late, and chased the jack at a fair pace right across towards Goregaon, if anything, a little left-handed. Eventually, just as hounds were seen to be almost on top of him, he doubled back towards the mangoe tope. As soon as we were beginning to think of record runs, a mighty sound was heard, and those of us who were not actually right up with hounds knew that the end had come.

It was a splendid run over some of our best country, and, after the obsequies of the chase had been duly completed, and the brush presented to Mrs. McLochlan, we set our faces for home, one and all discussing the features of our splendid morning's sport.

Tuesday's meet is fixed for Irla.

BOMBAY INQUESTS.

SUPPOSED INFANTICIDE.

The police were informed by an employee in a bungalow at Albert-road, that a body of a newly-born child was lying in a gulley in Jakoo Wadi. The man had been attracted by a crowd of boys who stood looking at an earthen pot, in which the body was placed. The police removed the body to the Morgue, where medical examination by Dr. Arthur Powell showed that the child had been born alive, and it was only through suffocation that it expired. Abrasions over the lower jaw and on the neck and certain marks on the front of the neck, which, in the doctor's opinion, were due to the body being pressed by a rough cloth, were also found. Mr. H. P. T. Lattey, the acting Coroner, held an inquest on Friday, when the jury returned a verdict to the effect that death was due to suffocation, the cause of which they were unable to say.

FOUND DROWNED.

A dock labourer named Krishna Goma, aged about thirty, was lately suffering from fever. On the 31st he was delirious, and next day he disappeared from home. Yesterday his body was found floating near No. 2 berth in the Victoria Dock.

An inquest was held by Mr. H. P. T. Lattey on Friday, when medical evidence showed that death was due to hæmorrhage of the brain caused by a fall into the dock or in shallow water. A verdict to that effect was returned.

OVERDOSE OF OPIUM.

A widow aged about 60, named Sonabai Framji, living in Cheera-bazar, Sonapur, in trying to doctor herself for a stomach complaint, took an overdose of opium, and had to be removed on Saturday to the Goculdas Tejpal Hospital, where she died yesterday.

Mr. G. F. Chalk, with a jury, held an inquest, and the verdict was that she had died from the effects of an overdose of opium.

DEATH OF A SEAMAN.

Last night the Coroner held an inquest touching the death of Mr. Harold Botten (36), a gunner in charge of the R. I. M. tug "Elephanta." The deceased was last seen alive near midnight on Thursday, when he left his dwelling for his boat lying in the Government Dockyard. Next morning he was missed, and on Sunday his dead body was found floating on the sea near the new docks. It transpired that the deceased was unable to swim, and, as the pathway leading to the boat was very dark and without a fence, it was assumed that he had fallen over by accident.

The jury returned a verdict of accidental death by drowning.

The deceased was accorded a military funeral.

KOLHAPUR.

New Criket Pavilion.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

KOLHAPUR, Jan. 5.

A very interesting ceremony took place on Friday afternoon when the Resident, Lt.-Col. W. Merewether, opened a new Cricket Pavilion, which has been erected for the Kolhapur Infantary by the generosity of His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur. Amongst those present were Mrs. Merewether and all the European residents; the Chief of Kagal and other Feudatory Chiefs; Lt. Gordon, 2nd in command, and the Officers and men of the Kolhapur infantry; all the leading officials of the State and many others.

His Highness the Maharaja of Kolhapur in asking Colonel Merewhether to open the Pavilion said:—Colonel Merewether, ladies and gentlemen. It is nearly 20 years, Colonel Merewhether, that I have had the pleasure of knowing you. I quite remember the time when you were here as 2nd-in-command and used to encourage us in various sports. Our acquaintance then commenced has now ripened into friendship and as a small token of my regard for you and in appreciation of your keen interest in all manly games and sports I requested you a few weeks back kindly to allow this Cricket Pavilion to be named after you and your portrait to be placed therein. You were good enough to grant the permission. The building, I am sorry is not quite finished as I should have wished. But it has been my earnest desire that its opening ceremony should be performed at your hand and I hope you will kindly excuse me for asking you to perform the function at this rather premature stage. You have not been very long here as Resident and Political Agent S. M. C. States, but during that short time, allow me to say, you have endered yourself to every one by your courtesy and sympathy and the affairs of this part of the country have been going on most smoothly and satisfactorily. You will of course in due course of time return to us as permanent Resident and Political Agent and I trust that in the meanwhile you will continue to keep alive your interest in Kolhapur and S. M. C. States. Gentlemen, I cannot allow this occasion to pass without again publicly referring to the dastardly attempt made on the life of H. E. the Viceroy at Delhi. The incident is fresh in the minds of you all and I make no doubt that you all join with me in detesting the culprit and his act and sympathise most heartily with Their Excellencies. I shall only add that something more than mere expression of such feelings is necessary. Government of course are straining and will strain every nerve to trace and bring to book the offender but it is the duty of every one of us to co-operate heartily with them and do our very best not only to unearth the miscreant but to put down and crush the spirit that is at the bottom of the villainous act.

Colonel Merewether, I now request you to declare this Merewether Pavilion open."

Colonel Merewether, in declaring the Pavilion open, said:—Your Highness, Ladies and Gentlemen. I may re-assure you at the outset by saying at once that I have no intention of making a long speech: a good wine needs no bush and cricket needs no praise. My gratification at being invited to assist at today's ceremony is three-fold. (1) I am much honoured that my name, through the medium of this Pavilion, will be associated with Kolhapur Cricket in the future. (2) I am delighted to know that the disadvantages under which Cricketers have laboured in the past will now be removed, by the provision of this fine Pavalion and the improvement and levelling of the Cricket ground. (3) I am always very gratified when any benefit is conferred upon the Kolhapur Infantry of which I am so proud and to whom the State in general and we English people in particular owe so much for their gallant and loyal deeds during the dark days of 1857-8. Your Highness has, with your usual tact and generosity, conferred upon me a lasting pleasure and upon the Regiment an enduring mark of your recognition of their worth and past services. In the name of the Regiment I thank your Highness most sincerely for your most generous gift and I greatly appreciate the honour you have done me in naming the the Pavilion after me. Your Highness has been kind enough to refer to my long connection with the State and you have spoken in, I fear more flattering terms than it deserves, of my short term of office as Resident. I can only say that, should I never have the happiness to return to Kolhapur, it will be a source of constant pride and pleasure to be able to think that my relations with your Highness have been marked throughout by the utmost cordiality and the sincerest friendship. My path through the troublous time in which we live could not have been so smooth had it not been for the unfailing that and courtesy exercised by Your Highness and the assistance always so cheerfully rendered to me by the Dewan, Rao Bahadur Sabnis. Your Highness has referred in most feeling terms to the recent villainous and cowardly attempt on the life of their Excellencies, Lord and Lady Hardinge at Delhi. It is difficult for me to speak in temperate language on the subject and I will therefore only remark that your Highness has struck at the root of the matter in saying that it is the bounden duty of the Public to co-operate with Government in crushing the anarchical spirit which at the bottom of this and similar crimes, and in detecting the criminals. Such men are a standing menace, not only to the proper government of the country, but even to the lives of ordinary citizens, as is clearly shown by the fact that, in the recent outrages several innocent spectators lost their lives. This consideration may perhaps have some weight with those of the Public who would otherwise not be sufficiently alive to their duties as citizens. Your Highness, I thank you for the honour which you have done me in associating my name with this beautiful Pavilion, the design and execution of which reflect great credit on Mr. Vichare, the State Engineer. I have now great pleasure in declaring the Merewether Pavlion open.

The Resident then unveiled the portrait of himself which hangs in the Central Hall of the Pavilion. After the garlanding of Colonel and Mrs. Merewether three hearty cheers were given by the men of the Regiment for the Maharajah and the proceeding, terminated.

A COMING CONCERT.

A concert will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Thursday, the 16th inst., at 6 p.m., in aid of the Women's Industrial Relief Works, which is being carried on by the S. P. G. Mission in Ahmednagar district. H. E. the Governor and Lady Clarke have given it their patronage, and it is needless to mention how keen Sir George and Lady Clarke are that this concert shall be a financial success. Judging by the notice published in our advertisement columns, a programme is promised, which is full of interest, and sufficiently attractive to overcome any indifference which may intrude itself after the unusual fare which will have been provided elsewhere in Bombay. Those who can appreciate amateur talent will be more than surprised and delighted with the violin playing by Miss George, who will make her first appearance before a Bombay audience, and in a concert in aid of a charity in which she is most concerned. Mrs. Watson, wife Mr. C. C. Watson, Private Secretary to H. E. the Governor will also appear for the first time. Welcome indeed are the additional names of Capt Drummond and Mrs. Millard, The plan and tickets are at Messrs. Marcks & Co.

WEATHER.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, Jan. 4.

The weather has been dry everywhere. Another depression is approaching through Persia, but it is doubtful whether it will give much precipitation in India.

Forecast.—Light local precipitation in Baluchistan and Kashmir.

SIMLA, Jan. 5.

No precipitation has yet resulted from the depression in the north, although moderate cloud is reported from Baluchistan and Kashmir.

Forecast:—Light local precipitation in Baluchistan and Kashmir.

Forecast of the weather for January and February 1913:—The indications are unusually conflicting, and do not point to a very severe or a very mild winter. It appears, however, that in the rainfall of the north-west of India a defect is more likely than an excess.

AMUSEMENTS.

MISS MARIE HALL.

Miss Marie Hall again had a most successful concert at the Town Hall on Saturday, the Assembly Hall being packed once more with an enthusiastically appreciative audience. This evening there is to be a grand orchestral concert, in which the Governor's Band under Mr. Behr will take part. In addition to the reserved seats there will be on this occasion a popular admission price of two rupees, so that everyone may have an opportunity of hearing this rare musical treat.

THE STROLLING PLAYERS.

"The Strolling Players" have just concluded a successful and extended visit to "Maidania", and although their places have been taken by some first class military bands, we are sure that the Bombay public will regret that their engagements do not permit them to make a longer stay. Although they are only three in number—Miss Bella Brocade, Mr. Forshaw Kershaw and Mr. Pearson—they have never failed to sustain variety and interest throughout a two hours' appearance, and their nightly performances have been one of the most popular features of this popular evening resort. Miss Brocade is a dainty singer, with a pleasant appearance and a pleasing voice. She will always command a welcome whenever she may return to Bombay. She sings light humorous songs brightly and wittily, and is equally effective in that smart kind of dialogue, which she and Mr. Kershaw affect to the latter's inevitable accompaniments. Mr. Kershaw's piano-playing has been of an order which Bombay has seldom seen, and he is equally good in humorous songs and imitations, while the third member of the two, Mr. Pearson, is a tenor, whose voice is distinguished by sweetness and clear expression. The final concert on Friday was a great success, and encores were frequent.

"Maidania" was looking its best last night. In the early evening the children had been specially invited and admitted free to the grounds, and each child on entering being presented with a toy, a trifle in value, but enough to please the little ones, and, through them, the parents.

After dinner the massed bands performance attracted an audience such as is seldom seen in Bombay. The garden was literally packed, every chair and available standing space being full quite early. The programme opened with a march of the four bands performing, the 7th Dragoon Guards, the Royal Dublin Fusiliers, 2nd (Q. V. O.) Rajputs, and 95th Russell's Infantry, escorted by a detachment from the latter regiment carrying torches round the skating track to the rink, where an excellent programme of music was given; and finally, the bands being re-formed, a torchlight tattoo concluded the evening's bill.

The management towards the end of the programme distributed a supply of carnival streamers which, being thrown about, gave the grounds a very gay appearance, while the throwing of them at friends furnished a good deal of amusement to the public.

This was the last performance in Bombay of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers, whose playing here has met with such unqualified success. The engagement was extended by the management until the latest possible date but they have now been compelled to rejoin their regiment owing to its early transfer to Madras. Their place has been taken by the Band of the 7th Dragoon Guards, which attained such popularity at the time of the Royal visit last year.

A dance is to be held on Saturday next, and a massed band performance, with a more comprehensive programme, will be given at the end of the month.

SKIN BURNED LIKE FIRE WITH ECZEMA

On Face. Scratched Until It Bled. One Box of Cuticura Ointment Cured Her. Also Used It to Cure Her Grandson of Eczema.

"I feel it my duty to tell what good Cuticura Soap and Ointment did for me and my grandchild. About ten years ago I broke out on my face. I was under the doctor for months and I tried all the best known ointments. It broke out in blotches on my face and nose, and it was very much inflamed and itched awfully. I scratched my face until it bled. The doctor said it was erysipelas (probably eczema). The pain I endured was terrible. I got run down in health with suffering and for the want of rest. At last, a friend said 'Why not try Cuticura Ointment? I know of cases that it has cured.' I was ready to try anything as my skin burned like fire. I got a box of Cuticura Ointment and the first dressing did more than all the other ointments. It soothed it and by the time I had used the box I was completely cured. I have not had any sign of the dreadful disease since.

"When my grandson was three months old, a pimple came on his head. More came till his head was one mass. A rash broke out on his face. We had him under two doctors and they said it was eczema. We tried six different kinds of ointment but they did no good. The poor little thing could get no rest. At last I thought of my own cure so we got a box of Cuticura Ointment and a tablet of Cuticura Soap and used them. He had more rest after his bath and dressing with Cuticura Ointment than he had had for months. He has got a nice head of hair now, but when his head was bad it nearly all came off." (Signed) Mrs. Blatherwich, off Key St., Bulwell, Notts., Eng., July 15, 1911.

Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout India, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on skin and hair, will be sent post-free on application to Muller, Maclean & Co., Calcutta or Bombay, or Newbery & Sons, 27 Charterhouse Sq., London.

BANK OF BURMA.

Important Meeting of Bombay Interests.

OFFER FOR THE SHARES.

In pursuance of a notice by the general secretary of the Committee of shareholders and creditors of the Bank of Burma, a meeting was held under the presidency of Mr. D. E. Wacha, on Saturday, in the rooms of the Indian Sharebrokers' Association in Dalal Street. The objects of the meeting were to report the progress of the affairs of the Bank, and to consider the proposals that were brought forward in the interests of shareholders and creditors. Mr. Wacha stated the Committee had great difficulties to encounter which were mainly with the Liquidator. He expressed the opinion that the liquidation was most unsatisfactory.

A summary of the report of the working of the Committee was then presented by Mr. W. T. Halai, Secretary of the Committee.

The substance of the report is as follows:—The last general meeting was held on 8th of June, 1912, in pursuance of the desire expressed by the Chief Court of Lower Burma, for eliciting the opinion of the creditors on the various questions; and in pursuance of the resolutions passed at the said meeting an affidavit of the chairman was filed in the said Court, therein embodying the wishes of the creditors on the question of the appointment of a liquidator and an Advisory Committee, and its constitution. The Calcutta Committee fully endorsed the views of the Bombay Committee and the creditors. The matter came on before the said Court, which declined, under its discretionary jurisdiction, to give effect to the views expressed by the creditors and shareholders so far as the appointment of a liquidator was concerned. The Court also recognised the names only of the persons who were suggested as members of the Advisory Committee, and directed that only such questions as the Court thought fit would be referred to the Advisory Committee by giving notice to an advocate in Rangoon. The Court did not pass any order for affording inspection to the representative of the Committee. In consultation with the Calcutta Committee the Bombay Comittee authorized Mr. Noble to prefer an appeal against the said order, as the Commmittee was advised that there were substantial questions both of fact and law, and questions of principle involved. The appeal was summarily rejected as the judge could not see any question of principle involved in the matter. The Committee thereafter again took advice on the said judgment and was advised that it was erroneous.

LIQUIDATOR'S APPLICATION.

The liquidator thereafter put an application to examine the directors when the substantive application for inspection made on behalf of the Bombay Committee and for giving directions to the liquidator was pending. The Court passed order on the liquidators application to examine the two directors and the manager in camera. The Committee was not given leave to join in such examination but was told that if it so desired it might instruct counsel to watch the proceedings. Without the inspection sought it would have been practically impossible for the Committee to be able to elicit material facts. The application for inspection made by Mr. Noble on behalf of the Bombay Committee was refused with costs by the said Court. This order came as a surprise upon not only your committee but upon the creditors and public at large and attracted special attention.

Happily the Indian Companies Bill having been introduced in the Imperial Legislative Council public bodies, such as Corporations, Chambers of Commerce and Associations pronounced their opinions and the liquidation of the Bank of Burma and the orders of the Hon. the Chief Court of Lower Burma became the subjects of comment among not only the investing circles but among such Chambers and Associations.

The Bengal Chambers of Commerce in its suggestions has most strongly tried to impress upon the Government, the desirability of having the authorities of the liquidator curbed by means of a commitee of inspection. The Bombay Bhatia Mitra-Mandal Association not only pointed out the difficulties of the Bombay Committee but made certain practical suggestions from the point of view of the depositors, creditors and shareholders. Having perused the aforesaid suggestions the Committee resolved to submit its suggestions in the share of a representation of the Indian Companies Bill to the Government of India, and, as the largest interest in the Bank was of the Presidency, copies thereof were forwarded to the Bombay Government as well.

SALE OF SECURITIES.

At times when some urgent applications were put in by the liquidator for the immdiate sale of certain securities, the Bombay Committee was obliged, after due deliberation in the creditors' and shareholders' interests to oppose the same, and although at the time this was not appreciated the subsequent facts have shown that the calculations made by the Committee were fully justified. Only three instances may be cited viz:—(1) Sale of the Rangoon property of the Bank; (2) Twinza Oil shares which were sold by the liquidator at Rs. 1-8, and which are at present quoted at Rs. 9-8. They were a lot of 1,400 shares, on each of which Rs. 6-8 had been paid and they were sold for Rs. 2,089-8-0.; and (3) the shares of the British Burma Petroleum Co., which were quoted at 2s. 6d., and which are at present quoted between 8s. and 9s., and which at one time recently reached 10s.

The questions of importance which were submitted to the Advisory Committee related to the following matters:—(1) Taking from the Rangoon Oil Co., Ltd., by instalments the debts on giving the said Company certain discount; (2) sale of Madras premises; (3) sale of Tavoy concessions; and (4) sale of shares of British Burma Petroleum Company. The Committee, besides, important suggestions on several other questions, has invited information in regard to various points and securities, but it is not in a position to say as to which of them have been carried out by reason of the liquidator not having furnished information on the questions.

OBJECT OF THE MEETING.

This meeting has been called by the desire of several creditors who sent in a requisition, and the offer brought by Mr. Noble, on behalf of some of his friends, the creditors of the Bank, for purchase of the shares of the British Burma Petroleum Company.

The Committee had before it two or three schemes for a re-construction of the Bank of Burma for the benefit of the creditors and shareholders, but on account of the obvious difficulties that have been created it has not been in a position to lay before this meeting a final scheme. The Committee, however, takes this opportunity of assuring the creditors and shareholders of the Bank of Burma, that it is taking all legitimate steps and making such detailed inquiries as may tend to futher the prospects of the creditors and shareholders of the Bank.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

The following are the questions put to the Committee by a Hindu creditor of Surat, with the Committee's replies to them:—

If the Bank has admittedly lent money on the security of oil mill shares to various persons, do the securities become the property of the Bank, and can it sell them without the consent of the persons taking the advances from the Bank? Has the Bank filed suits against the debtors for the advances made, have they given up their right to the security, and has the Bank taken steps to recover the deficiency?—The Liquidator has not complied with the Committee's request for the information containing the reply to these questions.

Has the Committee a copy of the account of the liquidation which Mr. Houldsworth filed in October last. If not, will it apply to the Court for an order on that gentleman to file printed copies of accounts in future, and to send a few to the Bombay Committee for the information of the creditors.

(a) The Committee has not received a copy of the liquidator's account. The Committee has wired to Registrar of the Court, asking to be notified when such accounts are filed, but no such notice has yet been received. The Committee has asked its attorneys to apply for a copy of the Liquidator's accounts when filed. With regard to the latter portion, the Committee will suggest to the Liquidator the desirability of doing so and in case he refuses will apply to the Court.

The sum of Rs. 50,000 was paid by the non-official Liquidator, Mr. Ferguson, and by Mr. Houldsworth to the Bank of India, in priority to other creditors, for the Bank's short period deposit. Has this loan been taken back from the Bank of India, and the first dividend paid to them "pari passu" with other creditors.—Although requested several times, the Official Liquidator has not furnished with the Committee any information on this point.

Has the Rangoon Refinery Co. paid back the debt due by them to the Bank in satisfaction of which 135,000 shares of the British Burma Petroleum were given to the Bank. It appears from the newspapers that they claim a return of the shares. In that case are they prepared to pay in their advances? Has any step been taken by the Liquidator to recover the uncalled capital? Who are the principal holders of the Rs. 5 paid-up shares?—The Committee has no official information on these points and will once more write to the Liquidator thereon.

If debtors have pledged securities why should they not be called upon to take back their securities and pay in the advances with interest. If the Liquidator sell the securities and the rates go up, they will like the liquidators of the Rangoon Refinery, want the securities back. It is, therefore, necessary to take civil actions against them.—The Committee is not aware that the Liquidator has asked the debtors to take up the securities. It has enquired which of the debtors have discharged the debts, but has not heard from him.

In Mr. Clifford's printed letter it is stated that Rs. 7,00,000 was paid by Messrs. Mower and Co. Is this true? What is the probable balance now in the hands of the Liquidator, and what amount is he going to declare as a second dividend, and when?—The Committee is not aware of the fact stated in the first portion of the question; with regard to the latter portion from the Liquidator's letter to the Hon. Secretary, dated 6th December, 1912, it appears that he has the following sums and balances at the various Presidency Banks, viz:—Rangoon, Rs. 8,06,366-13-8; Calcutta, Rs. 2,07,885-10-0; Bombay, Rs. 2,42,193-10-6; and Madras, Rs. 4,143-12-7. The Committee believes all these moneys are uninvested. The Liquidator, without prejudice, writes that out of the above moneys, subject to the decision of the Court with regard to the Rangoon Oil Coy.'s offer, and in the event of it being accepted, he hopes to be able to recommend a payment of two annas in the rupee; but if the offer is not accepted, he fears that creditors will not receive more than 1 1-2 anna per rupee as a second dividend.

MR. NOBLE'S OFFER.

Mr. Noble, in tendering his offer on behalf of some of his friends, for the purchase of the Bank's shares said: "What prompted me to propound this scheme, in consultation with some of my colleagues, was the ruling average price of these shares during the last six months, notwithstanding the reports that the Company was progressing well and the outlook for the oil trade was more hopeful and cheerful, as the demand for oil throughout the world was on the increase. Besides these factors, the British Burma Petroleum Co. had entered into an agreement with the Burmah Oil Co., Ltd., on mutually advantageous terms, which has put a stop to competition and rivalry between these two companies. I have therefore, taken up this project to move the Committee to purchase the fully paid £1 shares of the British Burma Petroleum Co. Ltd., held by the Bank of Burma in liquidation, for the creditors of the said Bank, at a reasonable price, say, not exceeding eight shillings and sixpence each, to be divided amongst the creditors, in proportion to their deposits, as these shares are considered to be the best part of the assets of the Bank. By taking such a step the creditors would prevent these securities from being depreciated in value any further, and secure to themselves the advantage of the fluctuations in price.

"When I commenced a few days ago the rate was 6s. but within a very short time it reached to nearly 9s. with a steady market and inquiries from all sides. I am not influenced by the operations of bears and bulls. In the absence of the second annual report, it is difficult to assess an exact value of these shares, but, after getting all available information about the Company, and being assisted by the oil experts, I shall be able to fix approximately the intrinsic value of these shares.

"This scheme, though started informally, met with such warm response that within the first four days I received applications for nearly 80,000 shares from my friends. I have received up to date applications for nearly 150,000 shares, from creditors; and nearly 200 letters and telegrams from up-country expressing a desire to join in our present scheme, and more are expected shortly."

RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

Mr. K. Javeri then moved the following resolution, which was seconded and supported by Mr. K. C. Cama and Mr. Hubbard, respectively, and unanimously carried:—

(1) That this meeting authorises the Committee to make an offer to the Liquidator of the Bank of Burma, and the Hon. the Chief Court of Lower Burma as the Committee may be advised, for and on behalf of the creditors and shareholders, for the purchase of the British Burma Petroleum Company's shares on the following conditions:—

(a) That the creditors receive the said shares at a price not under 7s. and not exceeding 9s. per share as the Committe may settle or consider advisable, in lieu of their dividends.

(b) That the shareholders have the option of purchasing the said shares at the price aforesaid, on payment of cash.

(2) That, in the event of the Committee receiving offers as aforesaid, for a larger number of shares than is actually held by the Bank, the creditors and shareholders receive such shares "pro rata" or as near as possible in the number applied for.

The next resolution was:—"That this meeting specifically requests the Committee to take such steps for obtaining a refund of the preference given by Messrs. Ferguson and Houldsworth to the Bank of India against such person or persons as the Committee might be advised, and for that purpose to apply once more to the Hon. the Chief Court of Lower Burma to obtain full and complete inspection of all the papers, books, entries and correspondence in the custody, or under the control of, the Liquidator, relating to the said transaction with the Bank of India and the payment to the said Bank."

Mr. E. K. Donald, Judge of the Small Cause Court, in moving the above proposition, said that if the Liquidators had given the Bank preference in paying them off to other creditors they had done it at their own risk. But he had been informed by Mr. Wacha that the Bank's credit was a secured one. Moreover, all sorts of things were possible in such windings-up, and the Liquidators might have done it with a view to effect some bargain for other creditors. Mr. Donald further said that they ought to know whether such a preference had been given by the Liquidators. He moved the proposition entirely on the assumption that they had but he did not know for certain—nor did the gentleman who had drafted the resolution know—if such a preference had been given.

Mr. Donald then proposed the following proposition, which was unanimously carried:—

"That this meeting specifically requests the Committee to take such steps to obtain full and complete inspection of all the papers, books, entries and correspondence in the custody and under the control, of the Liquidator, relating to the alleged paymnet of half a lakh of rupees to the Bank of India."

SCIENCE NOTES.

The question as to whether naphthalene is to be recommended as an insecticide is disclussed by the French scientists Lecaillon and Audige. This substance is commonly sold in the shape of small balls and is used in households, especially for preserving furs or various fabrics, but it appears that after being a favorite its use is falling off. They find that the toxic effect only takes place in a confined atmosphere and its action is slow. Furs or garments should be thus preserved in as tight receptacles as possible. It can also be used in horticulture in greenhouses for protecting against aphides and the like. but it appears to have no effect upon earthworms.

Capt. Ruser, who is now commander of the "Kaiserin Auguste Victoria" and has been designated to command the colossal "Imperator," is one of the best-known seamen on the Atlantic, and respectful attention will be accorded to the statement in his log of July 5th, 1912 (as quoted in "Annalen der Hydrographie") that at 6-30 a.m. of that day he, as well as his first officer and an Elbe pilot who was on board, saw a sea serpent in the water close alongside the ship, then off Prawly Point. The creature was 20 feet long, and appeared to be engaged in combat with some other marine animal, as it was lashing the sea violently with its tail. Its color was grayish blue on the back and whitish under the belly. The body was between a foot, and a foot and a half in diameter. Capt. Ruser says that the whole length of the animal who visible, and there could be no mistake about its reptilian form.

Electric light carbons of high grade are now to be obtained from tar, according to a process invented by a Swedish firm. The powdered carbon will be pressed to form electric-light carbons or larger sizes for electro-chemical work. The method is based on the fact that finely-divided carbon makes up a large percentage of the composition of tar and is what gives the black color, this being due to the carbon particles supended in an otherwise dense and transparent yellowish-brown liquid. A process is used for separating the carbon from the liquid. and it can then be moulded into any desired shape.

The administration of the Russian railways is seriously occupied with the project of a tunnel of gigantic proportions through the Caucasus Mountain Mounsains. This tunnel, the largest in the world, would have a length of nearly 16 1-2 miles, and it has been already the object of a conference between Russian and foreign engineers who have found: That the geological structure of the mountain does not present any great obstacles; that during the borings of the galleries no such difficulties will be encountered as during the borings of the Simplon tunnel; that the temperature can be maintained at about 77 deg. Fahr; that the elevation of the tunnel being between 4,300 and 4,650 feet, there is no danger of encountering subterranean water courses; the work will take about eight years. This great undertaking would insure a direct connection between Vladikavkees and Tiflis.

Bancroft's method of ornamenting copper, nickel, brass or platinum is to make the metal the cathode in 325 cubic centimeters of a one per cent. solution of coper acteate containing one gramme of gelatin and electrolyzing for five minutes with a current density of nearly one half ampere to one hundred square centimeters of cathode surface. Immersion in a five per cent. solution of copper acetate after electrolysis "develops" the deposit. If the plate is dipped in hydrazine hydrate before developing in the copper acetate the action is hastened. A variety of colors may be given the film, but peacock blue is the most beautiful. At temperatures above 50 deg. Cent. (122 deg. Fah.) a red color appears and short electrolysis between 55 deg. Cent. and 60 deg. Cent. with a lower amperage yields an indecent gold film. The final touch is the application of a coat of lacquer.

The plan of Col. Goethals for making Panama a point of supply of coal, oil, etc., for shipping, is one of the best collateral features of the whole scheme. Several piers one thousand feet long will be built at Balboa on the Pacific side. Here also will be a dry dock with a usable length of a thousand feet and depth of thirty-five feet, and a coaling plant storing and handling one hundred thousand tons of coal. Repair shops will be constructed which will handle large jobs of repair and refitting. At Cristobal on the Atlantic will be constructed several piers one thousand feet in length, and a large coal storage plant, capable of handling and storing from 200,000 to 300,000 tons of coal.

About £400,000 is to be expended in rebuilding the underground section of the canal leading from the Marne to the Rhine. The Mauvages tunnel, as it is called, is 3 miles long; it was built about 60 years ago and carries the canal under elevated ground at this point. The old masonry lining proving insufficient, a new and heavier lining of beton is being put in throughout the whole length. Navigation may not be stopped and the work is carried out on the Fougerolle system, which allows of working for short periods at a time. The process consists of dividing the tunnel into 600-foot sections, each section being pumped dry in one hour's time to allow work to be carried on for one day, when the canal is again flooded to give passage to the boats. The pumping is done from two boat-like caissons, one at each end of the section. The tunnel is approximately elliptical with a 2-foot 8-inch beton lining, the inside width of the section being 28 feet.

The most recent application of explosives to the farm has been in the breaking up of "Hard Pan" and other impervious sub-soils. Often, at a slight distance below the ordinary open sub-soil, a hard layer of clay or other practically impervious sub-soil is found: this may be cemented gravel, or a very tough clay which acts as a trap for surface water, and causes boggy or swampy land. The name of "Hard Pan" has been given to this hard substance. Recent experiments in America have demonstrated that "Hard Pan" can be blasted with advantage, and, in various parts of the world, many acres of land that hitherto were practically worthless are now bearing phenomenal crops. It has, moreover, been found possible to reclaim swampy land and to drain swamps by blasting the impervious clay beneath them; and fruit growers in many instances have adopted this means of preparing the ground for the planting of fruit trees.

Hitherto farmers have been prejudiced by fear of accidents against the use of explosives in breaking up boulders, uprooting trees, etc. The operation is, however, a very simple one. All that is necessary is common-sense and the observance of a few simple directions. The application of Nobel explosives to these purposes has long since passed the experimental stage, and splendid results have been obtained by progressive farmers in different parts of the world, both in increasing the crops on land already under cultivation, and in transforming into rich growing soil, land which would otherwise have remained useless and worthless. Other uses to which Nobel explosives are being put on the farm are clearing the farm of stumps, trees and boulders; loosening the soil in the vineyard; digging trenches and ditches in new and swampy ground, tree planting, digging wells, splitting logs, road-making and grading, planting and cultivating orchards, etc. These are all operations in which the use of explosives saves time and money. An interesting booklet issued by the local agents for Nobel explosives gives full particulars regarding heir employment in farming and agriculture.

The "Standard" says:—"An ingenious method of disposing of the ashes of a cremated body has to be recorded. After a woman had been cremated the husband took the ashes to a chemist for the purpose of extracting the iron, which he is now wearing set in his ring as one would wear a diamond. The amount of iron in a human body, according to the statement of a well-known analytical chemist, is at best very small—a matter of grains—and it varies very much according to the state of health. Anæmic people have very slight traces of iron in their bodies, but in normal persons there is enough to use, as it has been used, in place of a stone in a ring.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS:—Are you broken in your best by a sick child suffering with the pain of cutting teeth? Go at once to a chemist and get a bottle of MRS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor sufferer immediately. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to taste, it produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes "as bright as a button." It soothes the child, it softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for dysentery and diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is sold by Medicine dealers everywhere.

VETARZO BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD

This remarkable compound, the latest discovery of modern times for all phases of brain and nerve wreckage and exhaustion, sleeplessness, tremblings, palpitation, nervous dyspepsia, low spirits, mental and bodily prostration, muscular and local weakness, general and nervous debility, faulty nutrition, premature decay or deficiency of the vital forces, impaired vitality, harassing dreams, night disturbances, sudden startings, dimness of sight, defective hearing, loss of memory, inability to perform the various duties of life, or to enjoy its pleasures, restlessness that can settle to nothing, irritability of temper, female complaints, hysteria, painful periods, backache, bearing down sensations, nervous headache, wasting disease, night sweats, &c., whether induced by worry, overwork, unhealthy climate, dissipation, excesses, or other influences incidental to the wear and tear and haste or over-strain of modern life. Bracing up the system generally, it gives tone to the exhausted nerves, arrests all weakening wasting discharges, restores the failing energies, and imparts new life and vigour to those who had so recently seemed played out, "used up," and valueless.

VETARZO BLOOD MEDICINE

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of poorness, impurity, or other imperfection of the blood from whatever cause arising. No sooner is it imbibed into the system than it permeates and penetrates to the minutest capillaries, overcoming and expelling the virus of disease, wheresoever and in whatsoever form met with; removing all blotches, pimples, scurf, scurvy, scrofulous and glandular swellings, discolorations, roughness and unsightly patches, &c. Its effects are almost magical in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago, pains and swellings of the joints, discharges, blood poison, secondary symptoms, eczema, lepra, psoriasis, bad legs, bad breasts, abscesses, ulcers, wounds, sores, goitre or Derbyshire neck, it improves the general health, and quickly removes long-standing bronchitis, asthma, and hacking, straining, spasmodic cough, too often the precursor of consumption.

CAUTION.—Ask for "VETARZO Brain and Nerve Food," or "VETARZO Blood Medicine," whichever is required, and see that you get them, as unprincipled vendors often try to palm off inferior preparations (usually their own manufacture), for the sake of extra profit. Price in England, 2/9. Every genuine bottle of these medicines bears the British Government Stamp with the words "VETARZO REMEDIES" impressed thereon, in white letters on a red ground. Registered Trade Mark, "VETARZO."

DR. DE ROOS'

WORLD-FAMED

GUTTÆ VITÆ

Or, LIFE DROPS.

The Great European Remedy for Nervous and Functional Exhaustion.

This extraordinary rejuvenating essence strengthens the vitality of the whole system, gives energy to the muscles, and speedily restores the impaired powers of life, imparting strength and vigour to the most debilitated and worn out constitution. Those who suffer from premature decay, or deficiency of the vital forces, owing to dissipation, worry, overwork, excesses, or any other cause, will find this medicine just what they require. Equally adapted for the studious and sedentary; the aged and infirm: the nervous and debilitated; as also for delicate females and weakly children. All sufferers from loss of appetite, nervous headache, lassitude, and despondency—too often accompanied with suicidal thoughts—should make immediate and fair unprejudiced trial of this wonderful medicine, which is daily effecting the most remarkable cures in patients who had been given up by the Faculty as incurable, and left to drag out the remainder of their existence a misery to themselves, and a continual anxiety to their friends. In all cases of nervous and functional debility, epilepsy, impurity and poorness of the blood, aversion to and incapacity for society, study, or business, giddiness, disturbed sleep, harassing dreams, loss of memory, and other symptoms, the result of self-acquired ailments that embitter and shorten life, it is truly unrivalled. To married persons especially, this preparation will prove invaluable, giving strength and vigour in place of lassitude and incompetency. Price 11s., or four times that quantity, 33s. per Bottle.

DR. DE ROOS' COMPOUND RENAL PILLS, for Pains in the Back, Gravel, Lumbago, Gout, Rheumatism, Diabetes, and all Kidney Affections; weakness across the loins, Sandy or other Deposits, Discharges and Diseases of the Urinary Organs generally. Price 2s. 9d.

IF YOU ARE SUFFERING

from any such disease as ECZEMA, SCROFULA, BAD LEGS, ABSCESSES, ULCERS, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, BOILS, PIMPLES, SORES OF ANY KIND, PILES, BLOOD POISON, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, etc., don't waste your time and money on useless lotions and messy ointments which cannot get below the surface of the skin. What you want and what you must have to be permanently cured is a medicine that will thoroughly free the blood of the poisonous matter which alone is the true cause of all your suffering.

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE.

THE WORLD FAMED BLOOD PURIFIER

is just such a medicine. It is composed of ingredients which quickly attack, overcome, and expel from the blood all impurities from whatever cause arising, and by rendering it clean and pure can be relied on to effect a complete and lasting cure.

Here is good proof of its efficacy :—

POISONED FOOT CURED

"Some time ago I had an accident to my left foot (ran a nail into it), it festered, and got so bad that the doctor was called in and said I had poisoned it. For 3 years I was under different doctors and for one year of the three I only went out in a bath chair. Not only during that time did I entirely lose the little toe of my left foot, but a gaping wound came in the inside of the same foot. It was so bad that when I bathed it I fancied I could see the bones. At last I decided to try 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and with the end of the second small bottle the discharge had stopped, and within a month I could get my foot to the ground. It is as well now as it ever was, of course, very scarred and a toe short, but I am sure I should have been a foot short had it gone on."

"WORTH £5 A DOSE"

"I also recommended it to a Surgeant's wife at Aldershot, whose husband had an open sore for seven years, the result of a sword thrust in Burma. She said she couldn't get him to try it for a long time, but at last he did, and the wound has completely healed. She told me that often after a long march he has writhed in agony and often fainted. When they were leaving to go to another station he came on purpose to say good-bye and thank me. He said he'd never forget me for being the cause of his trying it, and that it was worth £5 a dose.—Yours truly, (Mrs.) M. Cousins, 167 Twyford avenue, Portsmouth," England.

LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL

THE PUREST. THE MOST PALATABLE. THE MOST DIGESTIBLE. THE MOST EFFICACIOUS.

Incontestably proved by Forty Years' Medical Experience to be The only Cod Liver Oil which produces the full curative effects in CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST, THROAT AFFECTIONS, GENERAL DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE SKIN, WASTING DISEASES OF CHILDREN, RICKETS, AND ALL SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

SIR G. DUNCAN GIBB, Bart., M.D.,
Physician to the Westminster Hospital.

"The value of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL as a therapeutic agent in a number of diseases, chiefly of an exhaustive character, has been admitted by the world of medicine; but, in addition, I have found it a remedy of great power in the treatment of many Affections of the Throat and Larynx, especially in Consumption of the latter, where it will sustain life when everything else fails."

DR. SINCLAIR COGHILL,
Physician to the Royal National Hospital for Consumption, Ventnor.

"I have convinced myself that in Tubercular and the various forms of Strumous Disease, Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL possesses greater therapeutic efficacy than any other Cod Liver Oil with which I am acquainted. It was especially noted in a large number of cases in which the patients protested they had never been able to retain or digest other Cod Liver Oil, that DR. DE JONGH'S OIL was not only tolerated, but taken readily, and with marked benefit."

JOSEPH J. POPE Esq., M.R.C.S.,
Late Staff Surgeon, Army, Professor of Hygiene, Birkbeck Institution, London.

"I found during my Indian experience that the worth and character of DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL remained unchanged by tropical heat or foreign climate, and it was, from its uniformity of character, particularly adapted for long-continued administration. The value of 'hydro-carbons' in all debilitated states of the system is now becoming thoroughly recognized; and it is, without doubt, from the animal oils, and fats, rather than from their vegetable substitutes, that we may hope to derive the surest benefit. The Oil of DR. DE JONGH places in everyone's reach a reliable and valuable remedy, one that cannot be too widely recognized."

DR. R. C. CROFT,
Author of "Handbook for the Nursery."

"DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is almost a specific in many of the Diseases peculiar to Infancy and Childhood, and I have seen marked benefit produced by its use. Patients prefer it to the Pale Oils, and are able to retain it more comfortably."

Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is Supplied ONLY in Imperial Half-Pints, Pints and Quarts, sealed with BETTS' Patent Capsule impressed on the top with DR. DE JONGH'S Stamp, and on the side with his Signature, and the Signature of ANSAR, HARFORD & Co.; and bearing under the wrapper a Label with the same Stamp and Signatures. WITHOUT THESE MARKS NONE CAN POSSIBLY BE GENUINE.
